

SATURDAY, JUNE 11. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersbourg, May 17.

We have received Advice of a very brisk Action at Sea, between our Gallies under the Command of Rear Admiral Bars, and the Swedish Fleet about the Height of Helſingfors. It lasted about 4 Hours, or somewhat longer, with very great Fury on both Sides. We have taken two of the Enemy's Frigates, and they have taken, or sunk, two of our Gallies. The Loss, in respect of Men, is pretty equal; if there be any Advantage, it is undoubtedly on our Side, all the Marks of Victory remaining with us. The Marriage of Count de Beſtuchef, Great Marshal of the Court, with the Countess Dowager de Jagonski, is this Day celebrated with the utmost Magnificence, and will be look'd on as a happy Omen to the State, if it be true, as it is reported, that a Courier was dispatch'd by General Keith, on the 9th Instant, with an Account that the Russian and Swedish Plenipotentiaries had settled the Preliminaries to a perpetual Peace and Alliance, at Abo; and that, upon this, he sent Expresses to Veldt-Marſhal Lacy, &c. This is very likely to be true, the Ultimatum sent from hence differing in nothing from the Terms of the Swedes, except in the Demand of Helſingfors.

Stockholm, June 7. The News we had from Finland of the Success of Major-General Freudenteldt, is confirmed, with these Particulars; That by the Defeat of so great a Corps as that he lately engaged, he found himself able to attack and recover the City of Uhlo; by which Means almost all Eastern Bothnia falls again under our Dominion. An Express is arrived, with the News of a Victory gained by our Fleet of Gallies over that of the Empress of Russia, in which the latter are said to have lost Vessels, and Abundance of Men. Our great Prahm Hercules did extraordinary Service, till ruined by a Battery on the Shore. We are also assured, that our Gallies are at this Instant between our Gallies and our Fleet; and, consequently, in a very dangerous State. But, after all this, here are Private Letters, which own, our Fleet had the worst in the late Engagement; and that the Russians, instead of losing their own, have taken two of our Ships. We thought Things went wrong a little, when we saw Count Louwenhaupt and Baron Buddenbrock carried with such Attendance, at Noon-day, to the Publick Prison. On the 1st Instant they read to the latter, who was very ill in Bed, his Sentence, which was, That, in the First Place, he stand degraded of all his Honours and Preferments; Secondly, That all his Estate be confiscated to the Use of the State; and, Lastly, That he lose his Head. Application was immediately made to the King for Mercy, who referred them to the States. We have just now Advice, that the Plenipotentiaries at Abo are to sign the Peace on the 10th.

Lisbon, May 14. His Majesty has, for some time, used the hot Baths, and it is given out, finds great Benefit from them, which, however, is very much doubted here; because we are morally certain, that the King designs to return hither speedily, which, we think, he would scarce do, if the Baths agreed with him. The Prince of Brazil, who attended his Majesty to the Baths, has been taking the Diversion of Shooting on the neighbouring Lake, which had like to have been fatal to him; for just as he made a Shot at a wild Swan, or some other Bird, the Boat unluckily overset, and his Royal Highness was the first that fell into the Water. All who were in the Boat had the same Misfortune; but in the midst of ill Luck, this happy Accident interven'd, viz. two Boats came off from Shore, and took up the Prince and all his Retinue; so that, except the Fright, they escaped Scottfree.

Prague, June 9. We have here the agreeable News, that Prince Charles of Lorraine has entirely broke the Schemes of the Imperialists and French, having forced the latter to retire to Straubingen, in very great Confusion. Before they did this, M. Broglie sent his Imperial Majesty a Message to this Purpose: 'That the most Christian King, not seeing any End likely to be put to the present War in Germany, at the Rate it was now carried on, had no Objection to his making Peace with the Queen of Hungary, on the best Terms he could obtain; notwithstanding which he would at all Times, and in all Respects, shew himself a faithful Ally and most sincere Friend to his Imperial Majesty.' This Intimation was received with the Contempt it deserved; and the Emperor himself was pleased to say, 'That He would never take Instructions for making Peace, from 'those who knew so little how to make War.' The French, when they came to Straubingen, found the Effects of this Message, the Bridge being broke, the Cannon pointed against them, and most of the Gates of the City walled up. They stay'd in the Neighbourhood the best Part of Three Hours, till the Hussars fell in on their Rear, and then they continued their precipitate Retreat towards Ratisbon, having left behind them Six Pieces of Cannon, and all the Baggage and Equipage of the Regiments of Champagne, Bonac, the Royal Swedes, and that of la Mark, amounting in Value to 50,000 Rix-dollars at least.

Augsbourg, June 11. The Emperor, accompanied by the Prince Royal and Electoral, with the two Imperial Princesses, arrived here the Day before Yesterday at Six in the Evening, with Prince Clement of Bavaria, and his Princess. Their Train was very numerous, and they were received under the Discharge of all the Artillery of the Town. The People ran in Crowds to see and welcome his Imperial Majesty, who alighted at the Palace of the Count de Fugger-Wellenburgh in the Wine Market, where he was immediately complimented by M. Wolfgang Jacob Sulzer, the eldest of our Magistrates, who carried the Keys of this City, and was received in the most obliging manner possible. The Foreign Ministers who have accompanied his Imperial Majesty hither, are the Nuncio Doria, the Count de Lautrec, Minister from his most Christian Majesty; the Count de Montijo, Ambassador from his most Catholic Majesty; the Count de Loos, Minister from the King of Poland and Elector of Saxony; M. de Donop, Minister from the King of Sweden; Baron Bernstorff, Envoy from the King of Denmark; M. Klinggraff, Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia; and the Count de Pallavicini, Envoy from the State of Genoa. So that notwithstanding his Distress, the Emperor has a very brilliant Court here.

Hochst, June 13. The Marshal Noailles having caused all the Troops on the other Side the Rhine to pass that River, advanced towards the Neckar with about 60,000 Men. The Army of the Auxiliaries immediately drew out on the Plain, between Kiltersbach and Reiffelheim, and remained there many Hours under Arms, on a Supposition the French intended to have given them Battle. The Ardour express'd by all the Troops, Austrians, English, and Hanoverians, was not only extraordinary, but excessive. But as the French did not come up, and as it was known that they were strongly reinforced, and had a good Train of Artillery, his Excellency the Earl of Stair thought it convenient that the Forces should repass the Rhine, and take possession of their former Posts. In the mean time, he keeps continually four Bridges thrown over that River, and sent Expresses to hasten the Artillery, and the Hessians, whose Presence are absolutely necessary at this juncture. M. Noailles is advanced to Gerau, which is above two Leagues from Darmstadt, to which City the Marshal, and most of the other General Officers, are gone. We attribute this quick Step to a Courier's arriving with Dispatches from his Court the Night before. But on the Arrival of the Hanoverians and Hessians we shall repass the Rhine again time enough to prevent the French from making any Advances towards Bavaria.

Extrait from a Private Letter.

Frankfort, June 14. 'The Affair is entirely over in Bavaria, and I will give you as concise an Account of it as I can, from an Officer's Mouth, who is arrived here Express. The Austrians under Prince Charles having pass'd the Danube unexpectedly, M. Broglie assembled all his Troops on the Iſer, making about 20,000, and retired towards Ratisbon most precipitately. He reached the Neighbourhood of that City on the 8th, by three forc'd Marches, which ruined his Troops. The Regiment of la Mark, and four other Battalions, were left to the Mercy of the Croats, &c. Marshal Seckendorff had no sooner Intelligence of this, than he too abandoned the Iſer with his Forces, and march'd as fast as he was able to Vohlbouurg, a little Town on the Danube between Kelheim and Ingoldstadt, and about two Leagues from the latter. The French joined them there, and this occasioned a Halt at Vohlbouurg to the 10th. In the Grey of the Morning some Imperial Dragoons came galloping to the Head-Quarters, crying out, 'They are here! They are here!' M. Broglie was in prodigious Confusion, for he reckoned he had left Prince Charles two Days behind. He drew up his Troops, however, as well as he could, and at first they made a vigorous Resistance, but at last were beat, and forced to run. As Prince Charles and Prince Lobkowitz are both at his Heels, he will scarce reach Noailles with

'any more than a few Horse and Dragoons. The Blow is fatal, and we expect every Moment, and with much Impatience, farther Particulars.'

Dr. JOHNSON'S Famous YELLOW OINTMENT.

Formerly made by GEORGE HINDE of Vaux-Hall, is now Made and Sold by his Daughter, at Tho. Singleton's in Lambeth Butts.

THE VIRTUES of this YELLOW OINTMENT, or GOLDEN UNGUENT (amongst others) are these, viz. It is most excellent in the Cure of all ruby Faces; it takes out speedily all Manner of Pimples, and makes the Skin smooth. It likewise takes away all Freckles in the Face. This OINTMENT infallibly cures and takes away all Carbuncles, Scabs, Scurf, and other Deformities of the Skin; it also cures (or rather destroys) Tetter and Ringworms of all Sorts, Shingles, and the Itch, let it be never so inveterate. And whereas some may think, or conclude, because it is an exterior Medicine, it may strike in the percont Humour, and thereby the Remedy become worse than the Disease: I do affirm, that this GOLDEN UNGUENT is so order'd and prepar'd, that it first draws out the venomous Humour, and in a short time after heals the Part afflicted, to Admiration. Indeed, for the first three or four times anointing, 'twill seem much worse than at first, but after that you will find its Operation to Satisfaction.

This OINTMENT is made up in Galipots, sealed with a Falcon, and will hold good at least Seven Years. The Price of each Pot is One Shilling and Sixpence, and is continued to be sold at the following Places (where you may have it pure and no ways adulterated) viz. Mrs. Markham's, at the Seven Stars facing St. Dunstan's Church, Fleet-street; Mrs. Garraway's, at the Royal Exchange Gate, Cornhill; Mr. Seth Ayling, at the Rising Sun the Lower End of the Minorities, Haberdashers of Small Wares; Mr. Davis, Breaches-maker, in Piccadilly, next Door to the Three Kings; Mr. Beverly, about the middle of King's-street, Westminster, a China-shop; Mr. Dumbleton, Baker, in Stanhope-street near Clare-market; Mrs. Sarah Rogers, a Perfumer, at the Civet Cat in the Poultry; Mr. Bradshaw, at the Golden Key under the Piazza at the Back of the Royal Exchange, Cornhill.

Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row.

AS it is notoriously known by all Lovers of Painting, that Numbers of Pictures of the very best Masters, are every Year destroy'd by ignorant Pretenders who boldly undertake to clean them, without knowing what they are going about; the Consequence of which is, either ruining the Dirt on, or taking off both that and the Colour together, or, at least, the tender finishing Touches, in which the principal Beauty of the Picture consists: This therefore is to acquaint all Gentlemen and others, who have any Collection of Pictures, &c. that with Application and many Years Experience, I have found out an infallible Method of restoring any Picture to what the Master first left it, let the Condition be ever so bad, (provided it has not been ruin'd, by scrubbing or repainting beforehand) as a Proof of which, if any Gentleman sends me a Picture, tho' ever so foul, by the Issues of Smoke, Damps, &c. I offer to clean one part gratis, which will, I doubt not, convince every impartial Person, that I do not promise more than I can perform.

To be heard of at Sam's Coffee-house, over-against St. Clement's Church-yard, about Eleven o'Clock.

This Day is Published,

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be speak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbatick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RANNEY'S Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
